

Monday of June, the fourth on the fourth Monday of July, (that also being the commencement of the common law July term of said court,) the fifth on the first Monday of October, and the sixth on the second Monday of November, (that being also the commencement of the common law November term of said court,) and to which said equity or chancery terms of said court all equity process shall be made returnable respectively; and the said circuit court, as a court of equity, shall be considered as always open for the transaction of business therein.

In force from June 1, 1864. See 1867, c. 329 providing for Juries in counties under Public General Laws, Art. L, Juries.

HAGERSTOWN.

1866, c. 73 adds the following to come in after section 123:

1866, c. 73.
Corporation empowered to lay out streets,
&c.

Appeals to circuit court.

123. The mayor and council shall have power to provide for laying out, opening and extending any street or alley within the town, which in their opinion the public welfare or convenience may require; to provide for ascertaining whether any, and what amount in value of damage will be caused thereby, for which the owner or possessor of any property through which such street or alley may pass, ought to be compensated, and for assessing and levying, either generally on the whole assessable property with the town, or specially on property of persons benefitted, the whole or any part of the damages and expenses which will be incurred in laying out or extending such street or alley; for granting appeals to the circuit court for Washington county, from the decisions of any commissioners or other persons appointed in virtue of any ordinance, to ascertain the damage occasioned by the opening or extending of such street or alley, and for securing to the person injured the right, on application within thirty days from the return of the report of the commissioners, to have decided by a jury trial whether